

THE WEDDING OF THE MILLENNIUM

- Andy Spate

A significant proportion of the ACKMA membership (in omnipotence, credibility, importance, agedness, stoutness, losing hairlessness and other similar parameters - but not necessarily in numerical proportion, viz: Elery, Angela, Stefan, Robyn, Peter Bell and Andy) had the very great pleasure of attending the recent wedding of Samantha Shirley to the well-known (and well-beloved) Rauleigh Webb in Perth on Saturday 6 November. Celery Reckoned and Andy Said it was a good turn! The wedding went off without a hitch (I thought weddings were all about hitches?).

Although Sam may have been kept in the dark about the true reason for the honeymoon location (to investigate the coastal karst of Thailand) we are sure that a good time was to be had - and we, and the rest of ACKMA, wish them both well over the many decades yet that Rauleigh will spend cherishing Western Australia's karst - and cherishing Sam we hasten to add! Hats were worn!
